IMMEDIATE RELEASE

TWO ARTISTS TO EXHIBIT PAINTINGS WITH PHILOSOPHICAL, MORAL THEME

SAN DIEGO, Calif.--Two artists whose works are pervaded by a mystic vision will be on exhibit at the University of San Diego Library beginning April 12.

Patrick X. Nidorf's transient figures are captured in timeless, limitless space. An Augustinian monk, Father Nidorf's paintings are not strictly religious in theme, but rather spiritual and moral. "They portray life as it exists, with hunger, pain and love in man's soul," he says.

The second artist on exhibit will be Conchita Vesco. She weaves her subjects - old people and buildings, flowers and birds - into rhythmic compositions which have philosophical, and often metaphysical, implications. Spanish born and Italian educated, Miss Vesco also works in graphics and hand wrought silver jewelry.

The exhibit will hang until the end of April and is open for public viewing. Library hours during the exhibit will be 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. April 12 to 16, closed on April 17 and 18, the library will resume regular hours on the 19th. The regular library hours are Monday through Thursday, 8 a.m. to 11 p.m.; Friday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.; Saturday, 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., and Sunday, 9 a.m. to 11 p.m.
